

There can be no excuse for allowing megacorporations to benefit from publicly held bandwidth. To allow ownership expansion cannot be to the benefit of Americans nor of democracy. The current 35% limits are already far too high, as demonstrated by the homogeneity and mediocrity of our commercial broadcast media. "I want rules in place that serve the public, rather than private, interest. I oppose taking a vote that leads to more media consolidation. On June 2nd, I urge you to retain the current ownership rules."
